Saturday 19th October – Stamford followed by Woolsthorpe Manor – National Trust

We start our day in England's finest stone town. Stamford In 1967 was the first town in the country to create a conservation zone, much of its historic architectural buildings remain intact After lunch we move on to nearby Woolsthorpe Manor, family home of Isaac Newton. A National Trust property it seeks to tell the story of Newton's time from his birth and childhood to the discoveries of his "Year of Wonders" during which he laid the foundations for modern science. You can see Newton's Apple tree – where he posed the question – why do apples always fall downwards.

National Trust members, please remember to take your card.

Price per person NT: £11.00    Price per person Non NT: £19.50

Depart Nanpantan sports ground car park at 9:00 a.m.

Charnwood U3A Days of Interest Group

Limited places available:

Saturday 16th November – York Christmas Festival

All the attractions of York, including its historic centre and the Minster, plus a Christmas market. Soak up the city's medieval charm and scents of spiced mulled wine this season, as fairs, family fun and festival flavours transform York into a festive fairy-tale. Take a leisurely stroll along St Nicholas Fair and soak up the festive atmosphere, as you discover fine Yorkshire produce from crafters and makers showcased at the Made in Yorkshire Yuletide Village. If you're looking for more traditional Christmas gifts, don't forget to wander amongst the many alpine chalets on Parliament Street. Head down to Kings Square and experience all the fun of the fair. Sample festive food and drink at the St Sampsons Square's rustic Yorkshire Barn with delicious treats including hot chestnuts and glasses of warming mulled wine. The Judge's Lodging will host the Small Business Christmas Market, where you can buy unique, locally crafted gifts.
